FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – EAST FACING SLIPS AT THE M25/26/A21 CHEVENING INTERCHANGE: JUNCTION 5 [KENT]

Thank you for your letter of 23 September requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act on the plans for a slip-road connecting the M26 to Sevenoaks and the reasons why such a slip-road was abandoned by 1984. I am treating your request under the Environmental Information Regulations (2004) as your request related to information concerning measures and activities affecting or likely to affect elements of the environment therefore I am legally required to treat your request under this Act. I have now completed the search for the information.

Please find enclosed the documents on the above subject, as listed in Annex A. (Please note that personal information may have been redacted where necessary.)

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. We will, therefore, be simultaneously releasing to the public the information you requested, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context via our website:
<http://www.highways.gov.uk/>

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use the information supplied to you for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purpose of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require permission of the copyright holder.

If you are unhappy with the way the Highways Agency has handled your request, you may ask for an internal review, you have the right to apply directly the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
