Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed our search for the information, which you requested on 11 March 2009.

A copy of the information is enclosed.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt, of which you will note there are some exclusions under Section 40 Personal Information/the Data Protection Act. We will, therefore, be simultaneously releasing to the public the information you requested, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context via our website: <http://www.highways.gov.uk/>

Most documents supplied by us will have been produced by government officials so will be Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown copyright on the Office of Public Sector Information website at: <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/click-use/index.htm>.

If you are unhappy with the way we have handled your request, you may ask for an internal review. I have included an electronic copy of the complaints procedure within this email, and in the first instance, could I ask that you contact myself if you wish to make a complaint.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Development Control Manager (Yorkshire & North East)
